

STUART LEADS FOR CONGRESS IN THE NINTH

(Continued From First Page.)

The Bristol convention against his will, but he went into the fight to try to win, and to make at least one effort to redeem the district, which for the past few years has seemed so hopelessly under Republican rule.

FIRST DISTRICT

W. A. JONES, Dem.

Counties	Jones (D.)	Wise (R.)
Accomac	1,200	1,200
Caroline	225	102
Elizabeth City	442	102
Essex	400	155
Fredericksburg	264	155
Glooucester	264	155
King and Queen	264	155
Lancaster	264	155
Mathews	264	155
Middlesex	264	155
Newport News	264	155
Norfolk	264	155
Norfolk county	264	155
Portsmouth	264	155
Spotsylvania	264	155
Warwick	264	155
Westmoreland	264	155
York	264	155
Totals	3,612	603

*Estimated majority.

Spotsylvania County.—The vote in Fredericksburg was small, but little over half of the registered vote being polled. W. A. Jones, Democrat, received 294 votes; George N. Wise, Republican, 155. Jones's majority, 139. Vote on amendment was as follows: Extra session, for 21, against 22; commissions, for 17, against 21; one reading, for 12, against 21.

Spotsylvania.—Election returns coming in show that a very small vote was polled over the entire county. Mr. Jones received 412 votes; Wise, Republican, 102. Jones's majority, 310. Vote on amendment was as follows: Extra session, for 21, against 22; commissions, for 17, against 21; one reading, for 12, against 21.

Elizabeth City County.—In Elizabeth City county the people voted in favor of the re-election of county and city treasurers and commissioners of the revenue, and gave Congressman William A. Jones a big majority. Of the total vote of 542, Mr. Jones received 442 votes; Wise, Republican, 102. Jones's majority, 340. Vote on amendment was as follows: Extra session, for 21, against 22; commissions, for 17, against 21; one reading, for 12, against 21.

Williamsburg.—The total vote cast in Williamsburg was 115, of which 75 were thrown out as defeated. The following was the result: Lamb, Democrat, 58; Jones, Republican, 58. For extending Legislature, 15; against 53; for succession, 44; against 44; for commissioners, 45; against 45; for one reading, 23; against 63.

Grafton District.—Total vote cast, 110; for Congress, W. A. Jones, 85; George N. Wise, 11; Edward Schade, 1. Constitutional amendments—extend session, 2 for, 28 against; success, 2 for, 28 against; commissions, 26 for, 5 against; one reading, 2 for, 27 against.

York County.—Returns in York county, for Congress, W. A. Jones, 13; George N. Wise, 12. For constitutional amendment, extend session, for 6, against 29; success, for 15, against 8; commissions, for 15, against 12; one reading, for 7, against 16.

Newport News.—Newport News today gave Jones, the Democratic Congressman in the First District, a majority of 313. A substantial majority was polled against each of the four proposed amendments.

Total vote cast. 821; vote for Congress, Jones, 529; Wise, 226; Townsends, 15; Schade, 9; J. E. B. Stuart, 1. Vote on amendments: For amendment to section 46, 225; against, 482; for amendment to section 50, 288; against, 494; for amendment to section 110, 236; against, 399; for amendment to section 119 and 120, 298; against, 107.

Norfolk County.—Headquarters of Jones, 32; Wise, 18; majority, 14. Headline—Jones, 52; Wise, 18; majority, 34. Burgess Store—Jones, 52; Wise, 15; majority, 37. Readville—Jones, 27; Wise, 5; majority, 32.

Knox Hats
have established a record for universal appreciation.

For sale at our agencies everywhere.

Wicomico Church.—Jones, 52; Wise, 5; majority, 47. Majority for Jones, 174. Total, 228.

Richmond County.—Vote in Accomac very light. Jones's majority is 800. Majority for Jones, 800. Vote on amendment, 294 for, 155 against.

Accomac County.—Vote in Accomac very light. Jones's majority is 800. Majority for Jones, 800. Vote on amendment, 294 for, 155 against.

SECOND DISTRICT

E. E. HOLLAND, Dem.

Counties	Holland (D.)	Rumble (R.)
Isle of Wight	411	63
Norfolk city	2,419	444
Norfolk county	1,102	422
Portsmouth	641	70
Southampton	544	70
Suffolk	544	70
Total	5,973	1,129

*Estimated majority.

Norfolk County.—Portsmouth complete, gives Holland, 1,102; Rumble, 161. The vote is almost solid against the amendments.

Nampanom County.—Returns from Suffolk, four precincts complete, at 7:10 o'clock, give Holland, 544; Rumble, 87. Returns from all twelve precincts complete in Nansemond county, at 7:20 o'clock, give Holland, 531; Rumble, 43. Total vote in Holland's home county, including Suffolk, 1,075 to 130. All amendments are smashed.

Portsmouth City.—Complete returns from Portsmouth city give Holland, Democrat, for Congress, 1,092; Rumble, Republican, 422. This shows a Republican gain, but Holland will be elected in the district by a large majority.

Southampton County.—Boykins—Returns from Boykins, Southampton county, as follows: Votes cast, 59; O. D. Holland, 38; H. R. Rumble, 5; against amendments, 93; for, 1, against.

Spotsylvania County.—Spotsylvania Courthouse—Jones, Democrat, for Congress, gets 17 majority over Wise, Republican, 19 majority was cast against amendments. Brookburg, Spotsylvania county, Jones's majority was 2; majority against amendments, 60.

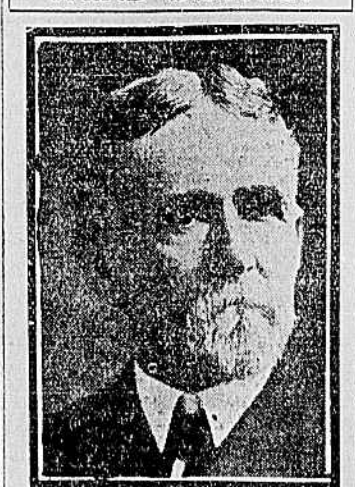

Caroline County.—Bowling Green—Incomplete returns from Caroline county give William A. Jones 25 majority; for Congress, over George A. Wise. Amendments were defeated by a large majority. Precincts to hear from will not materially change figures. Very light vote was polled.

Isle of Wight.—Eleven out of twelve precincts in Isle of Wight county give Holland, 411; Rumble, 63. The amendments here are killed, 14 to 1. All of the sixteen precincts in Suffolk and Nansemond counties give Holland 1,075; Rumble, 130. Ten out of eleven precincts in Southampton county give Holland 641; Rumble, 70. Amendments are beaten about 3 to 1. Many persons in Nansemond, Southampton and Isle of Wight refuse to vote on amendments. With all but a few remote precincts in from the entire Second District, Holland has a plurality of 3,879. It will reach nearly 4,000 when all is told.

Norfolk City.—Norfolk city vote complete. Holland, 2,419; Rumble, 444. Treasurers and commissioners' amendments defeated by 55 votes; Amendment for extension of Legislature snowed under by vote of 350.

Southampton County.—Franklin—Returns from Southampton county give Holland 641; Rumble, 70. Returns on amendments not complete, but returns from six precincts out of eleven give about 75 for the first two and 450 against them, about about 100 for the last two and 400 against them.

THIRD DISTRICT

JOHN LAMB, Dem.

Counties	Lamb (D.)	Vawter (R.)
Charles City	99	14
Chatham	87	14
Chesapeake	395	14
Henrico	375	150
James	16	16
King William	90	16
New Kent	90	16
Richmond City	3,350	252
Williamsburg	82	24
Total	4,494	524

*Estimated majority.

New Kent County.—Quinton—Lamb, 23; Vawter, 11. Al-leysville—Lamb, 23; Vawter, 11. New Kent Courthouse—Lamb, 15; Vawter, 2.

Chesapeake.—Lamb receives 23; Vawter 2. Against all amendments, 24.

Chesterfield Courthouse gives Lamb 22; Vawter, 25.

James City County.—Precinct No. 2, Jamestown District, James City county, gave Lamb, 16; Vawter, 18. Harrison's precinct—Lamb, 27; Vawter, 14; Wilroy, 30. For amendments, 11; against, 53.

Manokin Precinct—Lamb, 14; Vawter, 2; Wilroy, 15; for amendment, 0; against, 14.

Lanesville Precinct—Lamb, 25; Vawter, 4; Wilroy, 27; for amendments, 2; against, 23.

Patrick County.—Lamb, 4; Vawter, 7; 36 votes against all amendments, 14 for treasurers and commissioners.

FOURTH DISTRICT

ROBERT TURNBULL, Dem.

Counties	Turnbull (D.)	Amelia (R.)
Amelia	1,400	140
Brinsford	167	200
Dinwiddie	130	200
Greensville	130	200
Lunenburg	167	200
Mecklenburg	78	89
Nottoway	488	178
Petersburg	178	14
Prince Edward	14	14
Prince George	14	14
Surry	14	14
Sussex	14	14
Total	1,665	740

*Estimated majority.

Powhatan County.—The total vote cast in Powhatan county, 307. For the amendment to section 110, 119 and 120, 138 votes. On the amendments to section 46 and 50 not heard. R. Turnbull, without opposition for Congress, gets 248 votes. All precincts in the county heard from.

Nottoway County.—Crews—Fifty-seven votes were polled at this precinct. Turnbull received 57. Four votes were cast for amendment of section 110; Art. III. of Constitution 53 against 12; for amendment of section 119 and 120, 53 against 12; for amendment of section 46, Article IV, 51 against 4; for amendment section 50, Article IV, 51 against 4.

Amelia County.—Total vote at Amelia Courthouse: Turnbull, 1,400; Vawter, 140. Amendments, 8; against amendments, 10.

Lunenburg County.—Mecklenburg—About 300 votes cast. Turnbull getting all. Indications are that amendments are given majority, except for extension of session. Lunenburg County, 138; against amendments, 138; for improvement of courthouse was carried nearly unanimously.

Surry County.—Surry—Vote in the county was very light. Turnbull for Congress, getting all the votes as there is no opposition. The county voted for amendments.

Greensville County.—Emporia—Emporia and Belvidere Precincts—Lamb, 130; Vawter, 130. For extension sessions, 21; against, 114; for reading bills, 44; against, 71; for treasurers in counties, 113; against, 79; for officers in cities, 101; against, 59.

Lunenburg County.—Kenbridge—Returns from Lunenburg county show that the bond issue of $2,500 for a vault in the clerk's office was carried by a large majority. Turnbull received about 200 votes, which was about all cast in the county. The amendments to sections 46 and 50 are lost by a large majority. The amendments to sections 110, 119 and 120 received about 150 for, and 50 against them. There was little interest shown in the election throughout the county.

Mecklenburg County.—Boynton—The vote here was small. Turnbull will get practically the entire vote of Mecklenburg. For amendment to section 46, Article IV, 27; against, 42; for amendment section 110, 43; against, 120; for amendment sections 119 and 120, 12; against, 30.

Prince Edward County.—Farmville—Total vote, 178; for Turnbull, 138; against, 40. Amendments, 134, all four; for all four, 39.

Petersburg.—Petersburg was very light. Turnbull, Democrat, for Congress, received 488; for extending session, 16; against, 328; for one reading, 22; against, 248; for commissioners, 27; against, 196.

Prince George County.—Princes George Courthouse—Turnbull, 14; for all amendments, 14.

Montgomery County.—East Radford—Election passed quietly westward. Glass, 55; Allison, 12. Amendments, 25 for, 25 against; section 46, 57; one reading, 41; against, 25; success, for 50; against, 16; commissioners, for 50; against, 17.

Eastward.—Glass, 70; Allison, 27. Amendments, extended session, for 12; against, 75; one reading, for 12; against, 75; success, for 50; against, 12; section 119 and 120, for 57; against, 32.

Bedford City.—The election passed off here without incident or interest. The amendments to sections 46 and 50 were carried. The precincts heard from stand as follows: North Liberty, Glass, 108; Allison, 3; South Liberty, Glass, 55; Allison, 9. Glass has 122 of the 174 votes cast, at the two precincts. The amendments to the Constitution are defeated by about 2 to 1.

Montgomery County.—Blacksburg gave Glass 135, Allison, 31. First amendment, 46 for, 113 against; second amendment, 25 for, 25 against; third, 120 for, 38 against; fourth, 101 for, 41 against.

Roanoke City.—A very small vote was cast here in today's election, the absence of interest being due to the fact that the Democratic candidate for Congress, Carter Glass, had no organized opposition. The name of William T. Mason, an employee of the blacksmith shop at the Roanoke Hotel, was on the ballot as the candidate of the Socialists. The vote was: Glass, 685; Allison, 138. A number of ballots were thrown out, the total vote being as follows: For extending sessions, 131; against, 84; majority against, 708. For amending procedure, 447; against, 503; majority against, 56. For treasurers and commissioners of revenue to succeed Carter Glass, 342; against, 342; majority for, 220. For treasurers and commissioners of revenue to succeed Carter Glass, 342; against, 342; majority for, 220.

Bedford City.—The election passed off here without incident or interest. The amendments to sections 46 and 50 were carried. The precincts heard from stand as follows: North Liberty, Glass, 108; Allison, 3; South Liberty, Glass, 55; Allison, 9. Glass has 122 of the 174 votes cast, at the two precincts. The amendments to the Constitution are defeated by about 2 to 1.

Montgomery County.—Blacksburg gave Glass 135, Allison, 31. First amendment, 46 for, 113 against; second amendment, 25 for, 25 against; third, 120 for, 38 against; fourth, 101 for, 41 against.

Roanoke City.—A very small vote was cast here in today's election, the absence of interest being due to the fact that the Democratic candidate for Congress, Carter Glass, had no organized opposition. The name of William T. Mason, an employee of the blacksmith shop at the Roanoke Hotel, was on the ballot as the candidate of the Socialists. The vote was: Glass, 685; Allison, 138. A number of ballots were thrown out, the total vote being as follows: For extending sessions, 131; against, 84; majority against, 708. For amending procedure, 447; against, 503; majority against, 56. For treasurers and commissioners of revenue to succeed Carter Glass, 342; against, 342; majority for, 220. For treasurers and commissioners of revenue to succeed Carter Glass, 342; against, 342; majority for, 220.

Bedford City.—The election passed off here without incident or interest. The amendments to sections 46 and 50 were carried. The precincts heard from stand as follows: North Liberty, Glass, 108; Allison, 3; South Liberty, Glass, 55; Allison, 9. Glass has 122 of the 174 votes cast, at the two precincts. The amendments to the Constitution are defeated by about 2 to 1.

Montgomery County.—Blacksburg gave Glass 135, Allison, 31. First amendment, 46 for, 113 against; second amendment, 25 for, 25 against; third, 120 for, 38 against; fourth, 101 for, 41 against.

Roanoke City.—A very small vote was cast here in today's election, the absence of interest being due to the fact that the Democratic candidate for Congress, Carter Glass, had no organized opposition. The name of William T. Mason, an employee of the blacksmith shop at the Roanoke Hotel, was on the ballot as the candidate of the Socialists. The vote was: Glass, 685; Allison, 138. A number of ballots were thrown out, the total vote being as follows: For extending sessions, 131; against, 84; majority against, 708. For amending procedure, 447; against, 503; majority against, 56. For treasurers and commissioners of revenue to succeed Carter Glass, 342; against, 342; majority for, 220. For treasurers and commissioners of revenue to succeed Carter Glass, 342; against, 342; majority for, 220.

Roll county. From which nothing can be heard, Glenbrook to Parsons by 800 majority, which is nearly 100 more than he secured two years ago, the above estimate is secured. The majority was as follows: For Parsons, Grayson, complete, 535; Patrick, complete, 535; for Saunders, Danville, complete, 753; Henry, complete, 100; Franklin, practically complete, 300; Pittsylvania, practically complete, 600 to 650. Nothing definite can be learned from the back counties concerning the amendments.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham and seven precincts in Pittsylvania gave Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. Chatham precinct vote, 279 majority. Missing precincts will increase this to 325.

Patrick County.—Stuart—Patrick county, with two precincts to hear from, gave Parsons 279 majority. Missing precincts will increase this to 325.

Henry County.—Martinsville—Henry county, complete, gives Saunders 108 majority. Rocky Mount—Franklin county, 120 majority. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.

Pittsylvania County.—Chatham—Forty-three precincts out of forty-eight in Pittsylvania county, give Saunders 478; Parsons, 162. The five precincts to hear from, based on two years ago, will give Saunders 674, a gain of 189 over two years ago. In addition to the amendments have been carried.

Orange County.—Gordonsville—Only 48 votes were polled at this precinct to-day. Carlin received 43. Following votes were cast for and against the amendments: For extending session, 4; against, 40; for one reading, 5; against, 39; for success, 5; against, 40.</